Public Comment Extended for Fish Creek State Park Draft Management Plan

-Comments due by Friday, February 7-

(Helena, MT) - Montana State Parks (stateparks.mt.gov) announced today that it is extending the public comment period for the draft management plan for Fish Creek State Park now to Friday, February 7, 2014 at 5pm to allow additional time for feedback.

Fish Creek State Park comprises 5,603 acres and is located near Alberton, Montana. The draft management plan focuses on public safety, recreation opportunities, visitor services, operations and maintenance, tourism and economic opportunities, resource conservation, and education efforts for the next decade. It proposes a framework to guide management over the next decade, as opportunities are prioritized and resources are available.

Montana State Parks prepares management plans for state parks to guide quality recreational experiences, enhance park resources, and preserve the park's wildlife and natural assets.

The public comment period opened on December 20, 2013 and was originally to close on January 24, 2014 but will continue for 2 additional weeks now closing on Friday, February 7 at 5pm

To view the plan electronically, visit stateparks.mt.gov/fish-creek/. Hard copies are also available upon request by contacting Montana State Parks Division HQ at (406) 444-3750.

The public is invited to comment online at stateparks.mt.gov and click on http://stateparks.mt.gov/news/publicNotices/board/pn_0004.html Public Notices/Submit Comments or direct link is here:

The public can also send written comments by mail to: Fish Creek SP Draft Plan Comments, P.O. Box 200701, Helena, MT 59620-0701; Public comments must be received by 5:00 pm on Friday, February 7 at 5pm.
